

GreenUp Board Member (10%, voluntary)

The non-profit GreenUp inspires people across Switzerland to act for a resource-light future. Through our workshops and innovative projects, people experience how easy it is to use fewer resources in everyday life, making us and the planet happier. We run projects like “GoSimple” and the ClimateHubDavos during the week of the WEF, zero waste and food(waste) workshops and cleanups, circular and regenerative projects, as well as cool events and concepts for the public and cities.

Your main tasks:

- Sparring partner for GreenUp's Director and Team
- Development of projects, direction & vision together with the team and other board members + co-decision making
- Involvement in one or more projects / tasks that are core to the organisation
- Representation of GreenUp to external parties: Build up and engage in partnerships
- Support and leadership on strategy, fundraising and organisational development
- Share your expertise to benefit and upskill the organisation, GreenUp volunteers and employees

What we offer:

- Together with the other Board Members you are the face of an organisation that has existed since 2016 and has since then motivated thousands of people to live more resource-light
- The possibility to actively shape an innovative NGO, work with a young, committed, participative team of volunteers and employees at various locations across Switzerland
- The possibility to develop your CV, network and skills

About you:

- Based in Switzerland
- Team-oriented, participative and cooperative collaboration style
- Business-fluent in German and English, other Swiss languages welcome
- Experience with business development and/or communications and/or legal experience welcome
- Intention of a minimum 2-year commitment, with flexible start date
