

Board Member – Focus: Fundraising & Business Dev

(10–20%, voluntary)

GreenUp inspires people to act for a sustainable future. Through workshops, innovative projects and events, people experience how easy it is to use fewer resources in everyday life and feel good doing so.

Are you ready to help make a positive impact on Swiss society? We need you!

What we offer:

- Together with the other Board Members you are the face of an organisation that has existed since 2016 and has since then motivated thousands of people to act sustainably
- The possibility to actively shape an innovative NGO, work with a young, committed, participative team of volunteers and employees at various locations across Switzerland
- The possibility to develop your CV, network and skills

Your main tasks:

- Regular sparring partner for GreenUp's management and board of directors
- Development of projects, direction and vision together with the team and other board members
- Representation of GreenUp to external parties: Build up and engage in partnerships
- Support and leadership on fundraising and business development
- Co-decision making within the board
- Share your expertise to benefit and upskill the organisation, GreenUp volunteers and employees

About you:

- Based in Switzerland
- Team-oriented, participative and cooperative management style
- Business-fluent in English and German or French or Italian
- A well-organised and clear communicator, agile and comfortable with lots of moving parts
- Well connected in the Swiss philanthropy sector and/or business sector
- Intention of a (min) 2-year commitment
- Flexible start date

Interested? Contact Nicole Keller (info@green-up.ch) with your CV and a brief cover email.
